

DIVERSITY

SUMMER RESEARCH PROGRAM

Our Future Begins With You

Get Paid Work Experience

If you are an Undergraduate student interested in science consider the Rocky Mountain MIRECC (Mental Illness Research Educational Clinical Center) Diversity Summer Research Program. This education and training program lets trainees from diverse backgrounds explore real world experience in our Veterans Affairs Research Center with a mission to reduce suicide.

APPLY TODAY

Full details on our website

Self-Identified members of underrepresented groups are encouraged to apply

Including but not limited to:

Racial and ethnic minorities

LGBTQ+

People with disabilities

First generation college students

People from economically disadvantaged backgrounds

Dates

10 week program, June 4 to August 12 2023

Apply by February 1, 2023

Rolling admissions after that

Compensation

Estimated $7,900 before taxes for the summer

Transportation costs to Denver, Colorado

Housing options will be explored.

Work one-on-one with VA Researchers

Full-time (40hrs per week) research & education experience

Location

Rocky Mountain Regional VA Medical Center,
Aurora CO

Questions?

Contact Training Director, Dr. Lisa Brenner
lisa.brenner@va.gov

ROCKY MOUNTAIN
MIRECC

Scan for details

VA

U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

While you gain valuable work experience, you'll be helping us with our ongoing mission of serving Veterans.